

How can I help support the goals of CEC and DCDT Government Relations Committee?

Of course DCDT Government Relations Committee encourages you to participate in our committee. However, there are many other ways to help support the goals of DCDT and the Government Relations Committee. Below are some of the ways to help advance policy affecting students with disabilities and/or gifts and talents:

- Join DCDT's Government Relations Committee and become active in forming advancing public policy (email dmartin336@msn.com for more information)
- Email your members of Congress directly from CEC's Legislative Action Center – and tell your family, friends and colleagues to do the same!
- Sign up for CEC's Weekly Policy Updates by emailing pubpol@cec.sped.org
- Sign up for CEC's Smart Brief for the latest news send directly to your inbox three times per week by visiting <http://www.smartbrief.com/cec/>
- Continue to monitor CEC's website for breaking news and information
